Lest We Forget . . .

Pfc. John Richard Sheroke

Pfc. Robert Lee Quick

Life is a voyage in which one cannot choose the vessel or the weather. We can, however, do much to manage the sails and guide the helm. We cannot control the length of our life but we can control its breadth and depth. Freedom will always rest upon the individual, his responsibility, integrity, effort, courage, and his religious faith. Just as the blossom knows not what becomes of its fragrance, man cannot tell what will become of his influence and example. Our lives have been greatly enriched by our contact with these two fine, young men if only for their brief seconds in the eons of time. Our country is moved not only by the mighty shoves of its heroes but by the total of the tiny pushes of each honest soldier.

Alma Mater

Alma Mater, hear our song,
We, who in thy hold belong,
Pledge allegiance true and strong
To thy name, to thy name.

May our pride in work well done,
May each challenge met and won,
Honour thee as seasons run
Only thee, only thee.

Here where native field and hill
Foster strength of heart and will Thou hast led us; led us still
For all time, for all time.

When our high school years are past,
When our paths must part at last,
West Branch we shall hold thee fast
In our hearts, in our hearts.
